The motto of VRIKSH is art for humanity.

The objective of VRIKSH the theatre is envisaged as an umbrella of all theatre artists in Delhi, aims at uniting people in the name of art. Its activities also include producing plays and conducting theatre workshops for children and adults. At Vriksh, we intend to utilize theatre for the welfare of people and touch the lives of deprived children and also strive to find out novel and innovative means to realize the ideal of an art creation directly benefiting the children living on the streets.

THESPIS - NATIONAL MICRO DRAMA FESTIVAL

The micro drama festival by Vriksh the theatre goes by the name Thespis. In this annual event, a string of micro dramas from multiple languages is staged in the national capital.

The festival gets its name 'Thespis' after a 6th-Century BC actor who is believed to be the first person to have appeared in a play.

This theatre extravaganza is a string of 10-minute micro dramas on 1st February 2026. The micro-drama festival "Thespis" is an initiative of Vriksh to show-case theatrical talent of our country.
